DEATH OF GENERAL GERHARDT. A Patriot, a Soldier, and a Stalwart Re-

It is with deep regret announcement is made of the death of General Joseph Gerhardt, who died yesterday afternoon, at four o'clock, at his late residence, 1626 Fourteenth street northwest. He was born and educated at the university at Bonn, on the Rhine, and took a prominent part with Kinkle, Carl Schurz, and H. Rasher in the German revolution in 1548-'49, commanding a battalion in the Badish insurrection. He fled to Switzerland, and coming to this country in 1850, he made Washington his home. At the outbreak of the rebellion he was the first citizen in this District who organized a volunteer company to defend the Stars and Stripes, and was afterward commissioned as columns of the Start with New York Volunteers and enel of the Forty-sixth New York Volunteers, and breveted by President Lincoln, who was his warm personal friend, to be brigadier-general for meritorious services during the war. Since the war his health has been in a shattered condition, which finally caused his death. He was a good Stalwart Republican, and was twice elected a delegate from this lives. clected a delegate from this District to the Republican convention which nominated President Abraham Lincoln. His death is mourned by his friends as well as by the whole community. He leaves a wife and seven children in moderate cir-cumstances. He was a well-known restaurant-keeper, his last place of business being on Sixth dreet, adjoining the Washington Gymnasium. The Roman Hippodrome chariot races as daily attrac-tions during the meeting. The Indian act is called a "Race for a Bride," and consists in what may be called a hurdle race, during which the squaw is taken from her horse while in full motion. The chariot races consist of a contest in two chariots, one with four blooded grays abreast, driven by a lady, and the other drawn by four blooded bays abreast, driven by a man. Ap-plications for space at the fair are being daily received, and the indications point to an excellent industrial exhibit. The amount of $3650 is offered as prizes at the frotting meeting. The directors, at their meeting, also adopted a part of October, in which they will have four running races each day. Among the races are four great aweepstakes, the Novelty, Yorktown-Lafayette, and Washing Mexical The directors have received an offer of $4,000 for the pool privi-leges of their running meeting, which indicates the character of the stock that will be present. BIG ODDS AGAINST HIM.

Mr. School-Teacher Smith's Fight Against

Twenty-Five Thousand. "I am to be killed because I did right Gefended the oppressed, and upheld the weak."

The above declaration struck the car of THE REPUBLICAN reporter last night as he entered the Sixth Precinct Police Station, on Massachusetts avenue. It was made in a violent tone. The speaker was evidently in one of the cells. The station-keeper paid but little attention to the remark, which satisfied the reporter that no one was to be killed just then, even if such a thing was in

Who is your friend that expects death for doing right?" THE REPUBLICAN reporter inquired.
The answer was: "He gave his name as Lucien smith; his age twenty-six, and his occupation as school-teacher. It is a clear case of jimjams, and he has been going on that way all night." Mr. Smith heard this, and, crying out to the reorter, said : " Don't you believe him ; he is the leader of a band of lawless conspirators who are sworn to take my life. Look! They are shooting at me now. See! Here comes a ball. Ah! I caught it. The villains didn't kill me that time. Onch! One of the balls went in my head. See! A whole platoon of them are firing. Cowards, all of you! Give me one gun and I'il fight you all. There, I have been shot again! But they can't kill me. I have a charm that will prevent anything but a golden hall from killing me. Alo't the cowards. golden ball from killing me. Ain't they cowards? See the villains! Twenty-five thousand of them against me, and I unarmed!" Notwithstanding the odds were somewhat against

Mr. Smith, the reporter did not interfere in the fight. Mr. Smith teaches a school somewhere on the Bladensburg road. He is said to be a nice man and a splendid teacher, and that his only fault is that he drinks. The reporter wished him success in catabing none of the balls that were being shot at him, and as he passed out heard the station-keeper say: "Now, my young man, it's about time for you to take a rest. That platoon of murderers has gone." "If they are all gone I'll try and go to sleep," Mr. Smith said; and he laid on the bench in his cell and tried, but he did not sleep much.

SHOOTING AT BENNING'S. mall Scores, But Three Men Tie-The Money Divided.

The regular weekly military rifle match at Benning's yesterday evening, open to all comers, brought out fifteen entries and fourteen re-entries. The sunlight at the time of shooting was strong in the eyes of the riflemen, and to that is attributed the fact that the scores were not quite up to the usual good figures made by the District military riffemen. Four or five of the good shots were absent from the city, thus cutting down the entries. The following is the shot-for-shot record oniginal entries.

ANOTHER POW-WOW.

Continuation of the Conference at the In terior Department.

Another conference between the Secre tary of the Interior and the Sloux and Ponca indian chiefs now in the city was held at the Interior Department yesterday. Red Cloud acted as spokesman for the Sioux. He said he and his people felt that the land on which the Poncasare to be located was their old reservation; that it belonged to them, and that the Sioux were glad to restore the land to the Poncas and to live with them as brothers. After the details of the transfer of Sloux lands to the Poncas had been arranged and agreed to, a further conference was held to talk about the return of a band of Cheyennes known as Little Chief's band, from the Indian Territory to the Sioux reservation. Little Chief said he and his people had been taken to the Indian Territory against their will, and desired to get back to the land the Great Spirit gave them. Red Cloud and all the other Sloux chiefs said they were willing to receive the Cheyennes as brothers and would provide them with land. The confer-ence then adjourned until this morning, when the details for the transfer of the Cheyennes to the Sioux reservation will be arranged

Full Description of the Repairs that Mayo Been Made.

The United States steamer Tallapoosa will sail from the navy-yard to-morrow aftern four o'clock for New York, taking upward of five hundred tons of freight, mostly castings, des-tined for the Mare Island navy-yard, California. Her cargo will be shipped to its destination from New York by rail. The following is the list of New York by rall. The following is the his or officers ordered to the Tallapoosa: Captain, Com-mander A. G. Kellogg; executive officer, Lieuzen-ant J. F. Merrill; passed assistant engineers, George E. Tower, J. A. B. Smith, L. W. Worcester, and L. S. V. Berrill; passed assistant engineers, George E. Tower, J. A. B. Smith, L. W. Worcester, and I. S. K. Reeves; passed assistant surgeon, F. M. Rixey; passed assistant paymaster, Henry R. Smith; David W. McRitchie, captain's clerk; H. Aukward, paymaster's clerk; C. A. Young, gunner; W. L. Maples, carpenter; mates, H. Kuhl, C. H. Clapeland, Frank Poole, and Thomas Bon all; pilot J. C. Bonneville. At an early hour yesterday a representative of Thr. Raprusican hauled alongside of the Taliapoosa, and, in response to his hall, that genisi and popular old salt, Commander Kellogg, appeared at the ganguay and ordered him to come on board. This was accomplished after some tributation and in the manner that brought smiles of approval (at least that is the way Tile Regrentiof approval (at least that is the way THE REPUBLICAN construed them) to several weather-beaten faces. Once on the oak, and after the usual moutical ceremonies incident to such an occasion had been gone through, our representative asked to be SHOWN OVER THE SHIP. This was done at once, and the result as below is a brief summary of what has been done to this vessel in the way of alterations and repairs. Some fifty feet of additional length has been added to the saloon that formerly occupied the upper deck, the pilot-house has been elevated and placed on the hypothesis deck, where the man at the wheel The Barbour, can Fran- has a clear view forward and an, with nothing whatever to obstruct his vision. Bridges have been added on each paddle-box, where the officer in command can con the ship from stem to stern with a single turn of the head. On the upper deck the room formerly occupied by the pilot-house, with some additional space, has been con-verted into quarters for the commanding officer. Immediately in the rear of these, and nearly amidships, is the rooms in the event that it may be found advisable for him to take a sea voyage. These apartments are large and roomy, and are furnished in the best manner. The room on the port side is arranged particularly for the President. In the centre of particularly for the Franchic. In the court of the room is the patent swinging berth, which has been fitted up free of cost by Manson Bros., of Ros-ton. This is constructed of curied maple and cherry, and is finished in the highest style of the cabinet-maker's art. The berth is suspended in such a way that it perfectly counteracts the effect of the swing of the ship. The bed is suspended at each end within the berth, and will swing easily with any roll of the vessel. Anything like a sudden jerk is obviated by a stout steel spring at the head and foot of the bed, which slides over a pin, and at each oscillation of the bed acts as a brake to take up the motion. The upholstery of he President's room is in dark crimson satin, and that of the room adjoining in blue rep silk.

JUST AFT THE PRESIDENT'S ROOM, nd communicating with it, is a bath-room with all the accessories. The next room going aft is the main saloon, which is to be used as a dining-room by the presidential party. There are also a numper of extra state-rooms, sufficient to furnish ac ommodations for at least twenty guests. The vard-room has been completely refitted, and is regarded as the most commodious and comforta ble of any ship in the navy. The Tallapoosa, after discharging her cargo at New York, will return at once to Washington, so that in the event of the President recovering sufficiently to take the proosed sea voyage she can be utilized for that pur

The Camp-Meeting Yesterday-A Burlal-

dence of THE REPUBLICAN Washington Grove, Aug. 19.—What is needed out here is a refreshing shower to lay the dust, which is becoming very oppressive. The services last night were conducted by Rev. Wilford services last night were conducted by Rev. Wilford Downs, of Waugh Chapel, which was a kind of praise meeting. Mr. Downs, in his remarks, said that what was needed "was a happy religion, a religion that would attract the young people, not a long-faced religion. Away with it?" The prayer meeting at half-past eight o'clock a. m. to-day was led by Dr. John S. Deale, of Ryland Chapel, who arrived on the grounds yesterday. This service was followed by preaching in that tabernacle at half-past ten o'clock by Rev. Harry S. France, of Winchester, who took his text from S. France, of Winchester, who took his text from 5. France, of Winchester, who took his text from the twenty-fourth chapter of Luke and forty-eighth verse; "And ye are witnesses of these things." The attendance at this meeting was small. The children's meeting at two o'clock was well attended. Rev. Mr. France and Mr. Martin had charge of this meeting, the exercises of which were very interesting, Mr. Martin giving an account of WOUNDED IN THE WAR, which seemed to interest the boys greatly. This meeting was followed by a young people's meeting, which was held in the large tent on Sixth avenue, and was conducted by several of the laymen. The census of the ground is being taken to day, and will be made known to-morrow. The number stopping at the hotel is said to be 170, which was reinforced this morning by the following: W. E. Harris, Baltimore; J. H. Gassaway, Montgomery County; Benjamin W. Guy, George Hill and son, Thomas W. Smith, W. P. ton. Rev. Richard Norris, of Baltimore, also arrived on the grounds yesterday. Rev. W. I. McKenney, who was called home on account of an accident to his little child, has come back to camp. Blabop Andrews preaches to morrow morning, at half part ten occook. However, in the morning, at half-past ten o'clock. Howell Crawford, son of Dr. Crawford, of Latonsville, Md., who died yester-day morning, was buried this afternoon, from Goshen chapel. in this neighborhood, Mr. Mobely, whose death was announced in these columns, and who was a next-door neighbor of Mr. Crawford, dying from the same cause. Mr. Crawford's two sisters and younger brother are lying in a very critical con-dition from the same disease. Dr. Craw-ford is widely known in this county, and has the sympathy and condolence of the people for miles around. He sud his family were on the grounds last year, and would have been with us this year but for this sad bereavement. By request, Rev. Mr. Brown, of the Southern Church, conducted the funeral services, assisted by Rev. Mr. Tyler. The church from which Mr. Crawford was buried is a BEAUTIFUL LITTLE CHURCH, built of fancy bricks, and colored windows, the exterior of which is nearly covered by running vines, which give it quite a romantic appearance. Last night, as Mr. Silas Bell was driving home, one of the traces broke and his horses, two trotting or the traces broke and his horses, two trotting colts, ran away, upsetting the vehicle, in which were seated his wife and three or four children, throwing them out. All were more or less injured except one of the children. The express train which is due here at ten o'clock p. m. did not arrive until after eleven o'clock, the delay being caused by the breaking of an axle at Terra Cotta. The young people of the camp again visited Mr. Noyes last night and spent a very pleasant and long-to-be-re-membered evening. Mr. Noyes has done much to make the time pass pleasantly for the young peo-ple. It was rumored this morning that there would be a marriage in the camp, but which turned out to be simply a hoax. Preparations are already being made for Sunday, in anticipation of a very large attendance. Last Saturday there were sold some seventeen hundred pounds of meat, and it is expected that a larger sale by several hundred pounds will be made to-morrow. H.

THE COMING REGATTA. Preparations for the Reception of the Visiting Clubs. The local committee on the coming re gatta have their bands full and are working away like beavers. John Corson's head is getting more barren of hair from his anxiety that every arrange-ment here shall be complete, and Fred. Wright has lost pounds of flesh in looking up quarters for the visiting boat clubs. Yesterday there were letters received from the Mutuals, of Albany, N. Y., and the Minnesotas, of St. Paul, Minn., for quarters, and arrangements have been made for their safe housing when they arrive. The finance committee are making noble efforts to raise the money requisite for the proper entertainment of the visiting clubs, and it is to be hoped that our business men will subscribe liberally, as the regatta will draw to Washington an immense crowd of people, by which our own interests will be largely benefited. The annual convention will be held at the Masonic Temple on September 7, and the races will take place on the 8th and 9th of last night sent to all the clubs composing the asso ciation to attend the convention.

This evening at half-past six o'clock a shell race will take place between the four-oared shells o the Columbia Boat Club. After the race there will be dancing at the boat-house. Mr. Ellis Ward, of the famous Ward Brothers, is training the Columbias for the coming regatta.
